

Refugee Research Network

RRN supports knowledge mobilization by a global network of researchers and research centres committed to the study of refugee and forced migration issues

Prepared by: Dina Taha, Irina Osminin, Michele Millard & Susan McGrath

How We Create Impact

*click the icons for examples

Social Media

RRN Research Digest

Infographic Video

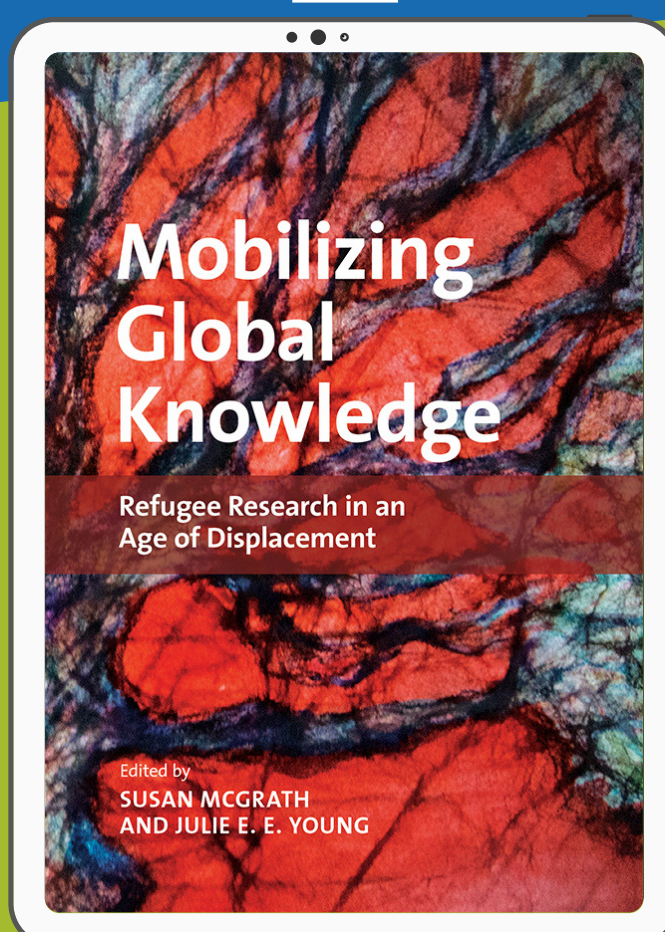

Clear Language Summaries

Become Part of RRN

1. Subscribe to our newsletter and listserve
2. Connect with us to share your latest work in RRN digest
3. Connect with us to transform your work to KMb products

Mobilizing Global Knowledge: Refugee Research in an Age of Displacement

Edited by Susan McGrath, founder of the Refugee research network (RRN), and Julie Young. This book traces the lessons learned and the journey of the RNN by bringing academics and practitioners to reflect on this global collaborative refugee research network. Mobilizing Global Knowledge brings together a vibrant collection of topics and perspectives. It is essential reading for anyone interested in creating and mobilizing knowledge to the benefit of the millions of people around the world who have been forced to flee their homes.

eBook is open access. Download entire book.

Download chapters separately.